Offer Lauded By Councilmen

A 24-hour emergency hospital for Daly City, to replace the Junipero Serra Hospital which went out of business last month to make way for the new freeway, was proposed Monday night at the city council meeting by Alfred Marquez, M.D., surgery at Mary's Help Hospital, San Francisco.

Dr. Marquez, on the teaching staff at Mary's Help, said he would pay the entire cost of the operation. The emergency hospital, he said, would provide emergency service for the north county until the Mary's Help Hospital is built in Daly City in 1965.

The doctor's offer was received with enthusiasm by council members. Mayor Pro-tem Micheal DeBernardi said he had exhausted every possibility of finding emergency hospital facilities.

"Naturally we are interested," said councilman Robert St. Clair. "We are caught without a hospital."

"I think it's a wonderful idea and an opportune time. We've received many complaints because emergency patients had to make the long trek down the peninsula to Peninsula and Kaiser Hospitals.

Dr. Marquez said that work on the new hospital, to be tentatively located in the Broadmoor area, could start in May, depending on bid estimates.

The Junipero Serra Hospital has been Daly City's only emergency hospital for the past 20 years until its closing on March 18.

Since then local residents have received emergency treatment at Kaiser and Peninsula Hospintal in Burlingame.

Dr. Drees, owner-operator of Junipero Serra Hospital, established new offices at 185 School street.

Jefferson Project

Board to Sue HS Contractor

The Jefferson Union High School District Monday night announced it would seek damages from the J. E. Roberts Construction Company of Oakland for foot-dragging on construction of the new Jefferson High School—a project that was supposed to be completed Monday—but will not be completed for another two months.

Supt. Edward Morgan has announced he is reaching the end of his patience.

As of the 31st of March the project was 86 per cent complete. The district has stated it would have to start moving into the new building after May 15 regardless of the condition of the new building because demolition of the old Jefferson High School building will begin June 17.

Tom Schalick, a representative of the Roberts Construction Company, said work has been slow because of a delay in delivery of laboratory equipment which has been on order from Richmond, Virginia for over a year, and was delivered Monday. He submitted a new time schedule.

Supt. Morgan said that recently there have been less men on the job. The general appearance of some of the rooms the men have to work in, he added, are "as filthy as a pig."

Contractors have estimated that there are three weeks to a month of concrete work left on the project, with three weeks of grading after that.

Cabinets on the job for the last two months have not been installed, Morgan said. Many have not had their primer coat applied.

The board approved demolition plans for old Jefferson High School, as presented by Falk and Booth, architects.

Final plans for the second increment of Terra Nova High School were accepted as presented by Falk and Booth. The second increment calls for about 49,000 square feet of additional classrooms at an estimated cost of $876,000. This will include construction of a third story, additional locker and shower rooms, auxiliary gymnasium and cafeteria.

Also on the Terra Nova project, the board approved the going to bid on additional site work, bleachers and additional lockers for both boys and girls gymnasiums.

Morgan reported the site for the high school in the Crocker properties is now finalized. Application for this fifth high school site will go to the state allocation board in either June or July.

Mary's Help Contract Set at $5,257,000

A low bid of $5,257,000 for construction of the new Mary's Help hospital in Daly City was made by Lathrop and company of Berkeley.

The bids for construction of the 10-story structure, expected to have an overall cost of $8 million, were opened Thursday. There were eight bidders, and the bids ranged up to $6,107,800.

Ground breaking ceremonies in which Governor Brown and Archbishop Joseph McGucken of San Francisco will participate, will be held on May 11.

The ultra-modern hospital will serve the southern section of San Francisco and all of northern San Mateo County. It will replace the present hospital at 145 Guerrero stret in San Francisco.

The new hospital will be erected on an 11-acre hilltop overlooking the intersection of Junipero Serra boulevard and Eastmore avenue.

SSF Billboard Is Protested

A proposal of the Foster and Kleiser company to erect a new 12 by 25-foot billboard on El Camino Real 75-feet north of Second street drew heavy opposition from nearby property owners at a meeting of the South San Francisco planning commission Monday night.

A petition signed by a dozen adjoining property owners was presented to commissioners asking they turn down the company's application on the grounds there are already too many billboards fronting the highway. The proposed sign is hotly opposed by the Hallmark House motel immediately adjacent.

NICE BUNNY — Miss Sue Daubin of 723 Larchmont, has been hopping about the St. Francis Square Shopping Center, posing for snapshots with children. Local Jaycees, who are sponsoring the bunny-shots, are using the pictures proceeds for charitable works. The Bunny will be on duty through Saturday.

New Water Lines to Relieve Pressure

The city council Monday approved plans and specifications for water lines on Baltimore Way and Junipero Serra boulevard.

The $43,000 project will be a new water main to relieve some of the very high pressures in this neighborhood. It will run along Junipero Serra boulevard, about 300 feet south of Knowles, east on Knowles to Woodrow street, south on Woodrow to Parkview and along north Parkview to San Diego and south on San Diego to Citrus.

Union Requests For City Wages Are Announced

Wage requests will be asked for city employees for the coming fiscal year, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees told the city council Monday night.

E. W. Kenney, business representative for Local 919, said the employees union will propose an additional top step to give due recognition to the older city employees. "We will ask the council to grant five per cent to the employees we represent," he said.

The union will also ask that the council establish the normal work week as five consecutive days — Monday through Friday, in keeping with prevailing practice in the area.

Other requests will include overtime at the rate of time and one half for all work performed on Saturday, Sunday and holidays and after eight hours in a day. The union will also ask that the council grant a premium of $20 per month for night work.

School Elections April 16

Jefferson High Trustees Make Views Known

Two Jefferson Union High School district candidates in the April 16 school elections, Lyal Ingersoll and James M. Cooper, are unopposed and standing on their records.

Here are their comments on education:

Lyal Ingersoll

"I am very gratified that so many people have given me their support. We are striving to get better education and facilities for our children. It is a continuing effort. No one person has all the answers.

"We have many good teachers on our staff. An unusual number have achieved recognition in one way or another. All I can say is that we have come a long ways in building from a one to four school district. Now we are going into a six to seven school district.

"We will keep up the quality of education we have had in the past and even do better when the opportunity presents itself.

Ingersoll of 439 Crocker avenue, Daly City, a general contractor, has lived in Daly City since 1942. Married, and the father of one son, who is married, Ingersoll has been a member of the high school board since 1951.

From 1953 to 1956 he served as board president, and also during the school year of 60-61.

James M. Cooper

"I wish to continue to expedite the present program of

Jefferson Union High School and elementary school district school board candidates made their views known this week for the voters at the April 16 school elections.

County School Race

Five positions on the seven-man county board of education are up for grabs.

The incumbents have all filed for re-election. They are Virginia J. King in Trustee Area No. 3 (South San Francisco) Nora S. Evans in Area No. 4 (San Mateo) Thomas Needham in Area No. 5 (Burlingame, Hillsborough, Millbrae and San Bruno.)

Florence M. Cadigan in Area No.6 (Belmont, Redwood City and San Carlos) and Perry E. West in Area No. 7 (Woodside, Las Lomitas, Menlo Park, Portola Valley and Ravenswood).

A pro-Rafferty slate of candidates for the county board of education filed nomination papers.

One of the candidates, David H. Keyston of Hillsborough, a businessman and financier and members of a prominent San Mateo County family, will run against Needham.

Dr. Frank Arnold of Portola Valley, a former high school principal and now assistant professor of mechanical engineering at Stanford University, will run for West's position.

Mrs. Edythe Bielenberg, president of the McKinley school PTA in Redwood City, will be a candidate against Mrs. Cadigan.

Charter Amendment

One of the key issues at stake is the charter amendment proposal which aims to make the County Superintendent of Schools an appointive office.

This amendment will be on the April 16 ballot.

Two Seats Open In L. Salada School Election

One incumbent and four other candidates are vieing for two seats on the Laguna Salada school board.

Robert T. Hale, of 280 Paloma avenue, Pacifica, is seeking his fifth term on the board. He was first chairman of the original union district, has served 13 years and was elected president in 1950, 1954 and 1961.

Patricia Miller of 941 Rio Vista drive. Pacifica, is makher third run for a position on the Laguna board. A coastside resident for 12 years and a graduate of Sacramento college, she is a charter member of the North Coastside Community council and has served on the executive boards of several PTA groups.

Rodney A. Clark of 309 Geneva avenue has been a Pacifica resident for the past four years. He is associate professor of education at San Francisco State college where he has taught for the past seven years. He holds a bachelor's degree from Southwestern university, a master's de-

Elem. Trustees Make Comments On Education

Mrs. Mayre Albert of No. 3 Royce Way is the only opposition in an otherwise uncontested Jefferson Elementary School district election April 16.

She is facing incumbents Joe Lewkowitz and O. Wayne Douglas. Here are comments from each of the candidates:

JOE LEWKOWITZ

Joe Lewkowitz has been living and seeing Daly City and its school district grow since January, 1939 from 1200 students to the present 9500.

Lewkowitz has been a trustee for nine years. "Four of the most trying years were in the beginning of my term,," he recalls.

"We had to build new schools, buy school properties and get the children off double sessions and to improve the playgrounds.

Unopposed Incumbents In Bayshore

Two incumbents are unopposed in the Bayshore City school elections April 16.

David Barry, board president, and board member 16 years and Ferdinand King, 12 year board members, are running without opposition.

Both had children graduate from the Bayshore School and the Jefferson Union High School District.

King, a resident of 3151 Geneva avenue, and a member of the Masons, is employed by Pacific Gas and Electric Company. Barry resides at 814 Schwerin street and is a member of the North County Elks Club.

SSF Clean-Up Wins Award

The final phase of South San Francisco's 1963 Clean Up - Paint Up - Fix Up - Plant Up Campaign became history last Monday night when the City was presented with a national third place award for its efforts. Mrs. William Cottenham, chairman of the "Project Shipshape Citizen's Committee" presented an inscribed trophy to Mayor Patrick E. Ahern at the regular Council meeting.

The City was notified in February that it had been awarded third place in the United States of cities in the 25,000 to 50,000 population category in the National Clean Up - Paint Up - Fix Up campaign.

"The City of South San Francisco takes great pride in accepting this trophy," Mayor Ahern said. "The winning of this award is especially significant when one realizes that out of a total of twenty-four awards, only one other city in the entire eleven western states (Los Gatos, California) received national recognition."

Council Notes

The Daly City council Monday night:

Accepted a low bid of $23,802 from Duncan Miller meter company for installation of over 400 manual parking meters in Daly City. The new meters, to replace the present automatic meters, will be installed over a four-year period.

Approved a use permit for Mary's Help Hospital, 145 Guerrero street, for construction of a hospital in an unclassified zone to a height of 150 feet on property west of Junipero Serra boulevard and south of San Fernando Way.

Took under study a proposition from The Universal Gym to sell weightlifting devices for the city recreation department.

Passed a resolution to request investigation by Army Engineers regarding erosion of coastside property. The pro-

Evening Book Review Topic on 'The Press'

Friends of the Daly City Library will sponsor an evening book review to mark National Library Week. It will be held in the Coral Room of the Westlake Library, 275 Southgate avenue, Daly City, on Wednesday, April 24, 8 p. m.

The topic will be "America — Here And Now, As Painted By Our Press." It will be discussed by the following panelists:

Homer C. Chandler, Millbrae City Administrator; Mrs. Dan Dawson, principal, Fernando Rivera School; and Robert Muller, Instructional Material Consultant for Jefferson Elementary School district. Moderator will be Wayne Douglas, attorney and member of Jefferson Elementary School board.

As an indication of the diverse opinions which will be heard, Homer Chandler believes "America in 1963 is a finer place to live than one would believe after reading many of the modern novels and newspaper articles."

Mrs. Dawson is inclined to agree with William Lederer that "the basic truth of personal action in public affairs is that no voice goes unheard," whereas, Muller believes "change is the keynote to man's development, but the rate of change is beginning to exceed our ability to cope with it."

This promises to be a stimulating evening and after the panelists have expressed their opinions on the subject, bolstered by their wide reading, the audience will be invited to

Conci Nursery Closes

Passing of Landmark

By JACK WOOD

The Peter Conci and Sons Nursery, 2231 Junipero Serra boulavard, a business established at the turn of the century, closed last Sunday. A new business site will be located.

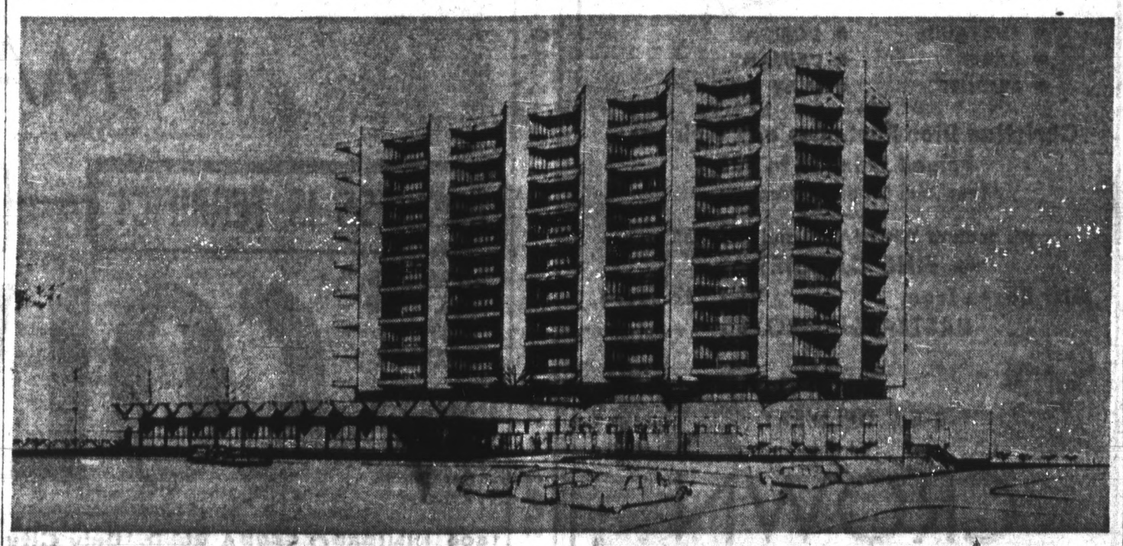

The nursery and white wooden frame home, nestled beside it doesn't exactly look like a landmark. Yet it was one of the first homes built along Junipero Serra boulevard at a time when the little used Southern Pacific railroad, which runs nearby, was a transcontinental line.

Peter Conci, a native of Genoa, Italy, settled there in 1895 and bought property under a government land grant. With his wife, Faustina, they raised Peter V., Emil, Diva and August Conci.

The elder Conci started out growing cauliflowers, and branched into the cut flower business, a trade he taught to his sons. They supplied American Beauty roses for many florists in San Francisco. The senior Conci died in 1927, and his sons carried on the business.

August "Auggie" Conci remembers Junipero Serra boulevard when it was a two-lane highway. Many a man was found dead along the boulevard, in the 30's, the victim of a gang shooting.

gram, according to City Engineer William Chapman is designed to "stop the horse before it gets out of the barn." Studies are to find out causes of erosion and possible spots where erosion can be stopped economically. The study is for the entire coastline of Daly City.

Landmark

Auggie remembers the days when old ranchers along the highway pressed their grapes for their wines, raised cows, made their own salami, baked their own bread and killed their own hogs.

"In those days ranchers buried their money in their basements."

The Daly City-Colma area then, he said, was one of the greatest market areas in Northern California. Over 100 train loads of all kinds of produce were shipped out daily by truck farmers.

The Irish were the original settlers. Italians, mostly from Genoa came later and continued the business they started in the old country, that of raising animals and vegetables..

The Italians in Daly City-Colma who started in the floral business, said Conci, came mostly from Florence.

Conci says he does not regret the coming of the new freeway, although Conci will experience a twinge of regret to leave the house where he was born and see the bright, new freeway come through,but he adds philosophically "There are things a person must remember. You either grow with the change or let the city outgrow you."

It was in 1940 that Conci, now parks superintendent for the City of Daly City, put his theory of "growing with the change" into work.

Working part-time, he planted the trees and shrubs and flowers that make up the Marchbanks Park, said to be one of the most perfect ball parks in Northern San Mateo County. Since then he has seen the completion of Frankfort, Lincoln, Edgeworth and Westmoor Parks and is now working on a plan to plant trees in all the streets in the city.

Daly City, which grew from a population of only a few thousand, not so many years ago, and is now over 50,000 will be one community, Conci stated, that "will not stop in the march of progress."

The building of Westlake by Henry Doelger, he said, came at a momentous time, Daly City would have died without it.

Conci is proud of Daly City and optimistic of its future.

He foresees the time when land values become so high the high rise apartments are the rule, rather than the exception, when the population rises to the 100,000 mark and the cities boundaries stretch from the ocean to the bay.

Daly City-Colma has become a long way since the time back in the days when "the hill," was only a wind swept plateau traversed by a rutted wagon trail to boisterous San Francisco and Colma was a center of dairies, farms and cemeteries.

"I see a great future, a tremendous future," Conci stated.

'No' Vote on Unification Is Indicated

Thomas F. Noonan, president of the Jefferson Elementary School district board said Monday night the district board of trustees had no alternative than to vote against the school unification plan submitted by a county-wide committee.

An alternative plan has been drawn up by the board.

Supt. Richard L. Foster reported the district has reached an impasse with the Calvary Cross Church at 205 San Fernando Way, Daly City, over responsibility for erosion to the north bank of Daniel Webster School.

Foster said the church's board of directors have agreed only to regrading and do not feel the church is responsible for erosion. The district engineers had advised the district to ask the church to excavate and back-fill a subterranean passage on its land above the property line next to the pool.

Lewkowitz resides at 277 San Fernando way, Daly City. Joe and his wife, Dolly, are parents of seven children, three of whom are married.

MAYRE ALBERT

Mayre Albert, the sole-candidate runing against the incumbents in the Jefferson Elementary district election stated that she is "tired of excess expenditures and the high cost of schools."

Albert, added that "Daly City needs a better watchdog for the taxpayer's money. "We often spend two and three times over what we should."

"Taxpayers pay too much for schools now. I think we could keep this cost down by careful planning."

Mrs. Albert has been a resident of Daly City 14 year, said she is aware of how much time and patience is involved in being a trustee and is willing to meet the challenge.

Mrs. Albert is making her second bid for the position on the board. Mrs. Albert, and her husband, LeRoy, are the parents of four girls and two boys and the grandparents of 13 children. A member of the Daly City Library Commission and the friends of the library, she is also a president of the auxiliary of Veterans of World War I, treasurer of the Hillside Homeowners Improvement club and a member of Native Daughters of California and the League of Women viters.

WAYNE DOUGLAS

"I believe that public education is one of the cornerstones of our country's democratic freedom. It serves to guarantee to every American equality of opportunity, and most of us owe a great deal to public education. Therefore, I am proud to have been a part of this education system through my four years of service on the Jefferson Elementary School Board.

During that period of time, I have successfully worked for a number of improvements in our district including a policy handbook, libraries in our schools and the elimination of double sessions. However, public education today is so dynamic that we cannot be content with our present position. We must continually strive for better ways to educate and prepare our youth for the challenges of this atomic age.

"Insofar as the future is concerned, I should like to say that I want to see additional consideration in the area of remedial reading, I want to see a utilization of our unused cafeteria space, and I want to see a unified district along acceptable lines for the educational welfare of our children. These are just a few of the advantages that we should secure for the children of Jefferson.

"I trust that the record that I have made during my four years of service on the board continues to merit the confidence of my supporters, and I pledge myself to work for the improvement of our children's education if re-elected as trustee.

Douglas of 1147 Southgate avenue, Daly City, is seeking his second four year term on the board. He was first elected in 1959 and served as president in 1961-62.

A tax attorney for Standard Oil Company of California, he practiced law in Columbus, Ohio, and in Alaska before coming to California. Douglas and his wife, Nara, are the parents of a son, Stephen, 14, a student at Benjamin Franklin School. A World War II veteran, Douglas has lived in Daly City since 1954.

Pacifica Hires New Inspector

Fastest growing department in Pacifica city government is its new building inspection department which has just added its third inspector.

Last month the city council authorized the hiring of John H. Hartzel of Belmont, a former FHA inspector, on a temporary basis to keep up with the heavy construction schedule going on in the city.

Chief Inspector Richard Taylor had reported to the council that the construction of Doelger homes in the Fairmont section north of the city was occupying most of the inspector's time this spring, with many more homes to be approved, especially in Oddstad developments in the southern section of the city. To date this year, 250 permits for new buildings, alterations and additions have been issued in Pacifica.

Pacifica Issue On Fireworks

Fireworks continued to be a fiery issue in Pacifica last week as a group of civic organizations was again split over suppliers.

Paul Groshowski of the Moose Lodge and Emmet Nannery of the Manor Village Improvement club objected to the wholesaler selected by the the group to supply fireforks.

By city ordinance, fireworks are sold in Pacifica only by community organizations licensed by the city. An earlier dispute arose when eight organizations applied for six licenses available.

This dispute was settled when two groups withdrew their applications in the interest of harmony. Basil Gladieux, manager of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce, urged the six groups to buy all their fireworks suplipes from one wholesaler so that the city could have a free display on the Fourth.

Nannery and Groshowski objected to the choice of wholesaler and announced their clubs would pull out of the group and sell fireworks on their own.

NEW MORTUARY — The new Duggan Serra Mortuary at 50 Westlake avenue, Daly City, located just off Junipero Serra boulevard, two blocks south of Knowles avenue, is now completed and opened to visitors. Edwin J. (Hud) Duggan is owner and operator. The 15,000 square foot building has two large chapels, a beautiful lobby and several small chapels. It is the newest and most modern establishment in the entire county, Duggan said.

Pacifica Planners Delay Items

Plans for three new major developments—a 50-bed nursing home, a new motel-retaurant in Rockaway Beach and a parking lot to serve the new St. Peter's church in Linda Mar—were all held over by Pacifica planning commissioners last week.

Although each of the various projects was held over for a different reason in a lengthy meeting, commissioners approved a new ordinance that will allow clubhouses and lodge halls in apartment zones a new zoning ordinance amendment that will require use permits for all service stations and a new garden apartment development at the rear of Westview school.

Commissioners discussed for two hours plans for a new Chalich nursing home of 50 beds on Peralta road before deciding to continue plans until another meeting to work out a street pattern to serve the new facility.

An application of Claire Drew for a motel and restaurant on an 8-acre site west of Cabrillo avenue south of the Rockaway Beach subdivision was held at the request of the applicant.

Mrs. William B. Astor's guest list on February 1, 1892, originated the term "The 400."

King's Campus Shop Gets a New Name: 'The Queen's Shop'

King's known on Ocean avenue since 1947, are celebrating the third anniversary of their branch at 1552 Ocean avenue by changing its name from "Campus Shop" to King's "Queen's Shop." "The change was a necessity," said Mrs. King, "because the old name was very misleading concerning the styles and sizes we carry."

At the "Queen's Shop" there is a very large stock that caters to the smart career woman, the home maker, the college, high school and junior high misses. Describing it, Mrs. King said, "The Easter selection is fabulous, both in styles and low prices. You will find a large variety of suits, coats, dressy dresses, dressey cottons, shirtmakers, cocktail dresses, prom dresses and formals."

In the sportwear department are carried capris, Bermudas, knee knockers, stretch pante, blouses, T-shirts, skirts and many match-mates.

There is a great variety of sizes—women, 8- to 18; junior, 5 to 15; junior petite, 5 to 13, and subteen, 6 to 14.

Mrs. King is happy to meet visitors personally, show them around the shop and aquaint them with the specially selected styles. Store hours are from 9:30 a. m. to 6 p. m. daily, and until 9 p. m. on Fridays.

Wall Holds Auto From Sheer Drop

Two young Milpitas men may owe their lives to a stone wall on Devil's Slide. After a collision with another car, their auto came to rest balanced on the wall, inches away from a sheer drop on the other side.

Highway patrolmen said the car, driven by Virgil C. Harper, 20, was northbound on Cabrillo highway at 12:45 a. m. Wednesday when it struck the wall, then glanced off and struck the rear of a station wagon driven by Vician E. Hess, 45, ,835 George street, Montara.

The two autos whirled around so that Harper's car came to rest with its rear end on the 2½-foot wall and the front end on the hood of the other car.

Post Office Starts New Work Agreement

The Daly City post office has taken official action to implement the Post Office Department's new program for negotiation and consultation on grievances, working conditions, personnel practices and other related matters, Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy of Daly City reported today.

The move—developed by the Postal Service under President Kennedy's historic Executive Order 10988 of January 17, 1962—officially recognizes federal employee organizations for the first time. Recorginition is based on results of the largest nationwide labor management election, held June 15-July 1, 1962, in which 451,000 postal employees participated. Official results were issued to each post office by the Post Office Department in Washington.

Here are the results at the local post office: Branch 5364, National Association Letter Carriers Local 6159, United Federation Postal Clerks.

"Exclusive" recognition was acquired by employee organization having a clear majority of the vote in a particular craft unit under prescribed voting procedures. The postmaster will negotiate with these organizations, holding regular meetings and working out written agreements on matters affecting all employees in the craft unit represented regardless of employees' membership status.

National agreements give local employee organizations the right to deal with the postmaster on local working conditions, personnel practices and in resolving interpretations under the local agreements.

At the same time, the National agreements reiterate Executive Order 10988's ban against strikes, discrimination. They set forth management's prerogatives which are not subject to negotiation—such as the budget, assignment of personnel, work technology or — of course — any matter determined by Congress, such as pay rates. Postal management, under the Executive Order, also retrains the right to direct employees, to hire, promote, transfer, suspend or separate employees in accord with Civil Service regulations.

A report of the President's task force on Employee—Management Relations in the Federal Service—submitted to the President on Novemebr 30, 1961, before the issuance of Executive Order 10988, said: "Representatives of clerks and carriers employee organizations made it quite clear they are aware of these limitations and are quite content to negotiate within them."

Postmaster General J. Edward Day was a member of this task force.

The employees of the Daly City post office, now receiving official recognition at the local level for their employee organization, join with employees in more than 30,000 post offices throughout the nation in aquiring official recognition under the President's labor-management order for federal employees.

Ten employee organizations representing seven postal craftunits — letter carriers, clerks, rural carriers, maintenance-custodial, motor vehicle, mail handlers, special delivery messengers — have been recognized. The number of organizations represented at each post office varies, according to the election results.

Police Visit Thomas

Lieutenant Hansen and Sergeant Murray of the Daly City police department, paid a visit on Thursday to the kindergarten classes at Thomas Edison School.

"Their visit was a high point for the children who have been studying about community helpers.. Lieutenant Hansen and sergeant Murray answered many questions and from the discussion, the children gained a clearer picture of the police department and its assistance to the community.

California, Idaho, Oregon, Texas and Washington gained statehood by the narrow margin of one vote.

What Every Woman Should Know About Her Automobile

By WENDY WHEELER

Auto-Torium Feminine Driving Consultant

This is the age of "super" everything. Supermarkets, supersonic airplanes, Superman, and the super atomic bomb. Not to mention superhighways! The latter — whether you call them expressways, turnpikes, thruways, tollways or freeways—are becoming an ever more familiar part of our American landscape, and it looks like they're here to stay.

These super roads are a challenge to our female driving abilities, for they create new hazards as well as erasing old ones. The grades are gentle, there is almost unlimited visibility, and you don't have to cope with crossings or pedestrians. Furthermore, the division of traffic into two opposing directions is a great safety measure . . . but it can give you a false sensation of security not to see those cars approaching you from the other way! Everybody is going where you're going (or so it seems) . . . but they're in a hurry to get there and not for one minute should you ever feel secure! No time to put on fresh lipstick or to mull over the dinner menu... No, mesdames, these new roads require more concentration than ever!

Fatigue, sleepiness, and the general monotony of an expressway often cause "highway hypnosis." You are apt to find your foot getting heavy on the accelerator and consequently, you're speeding. I needn't add that many fatal accidents are caused by this dangerous combination of "hypnosis" and speeding.

So, the first rule of the road is W A T C H YOUR SPEED. If you are going 70 MPH, you will need 532 feet (or roughly the length of two football fields) to stop. Make it a habit, I strongly urge, to check your speedometer at least every sixty seconds. You needn't count out the seconds, but somewhere within that approximate time period, glance at the speed, and slow down if necessary.

The second rule is to STOP FOR A REST about every 100 miles. I enjoy stopping, myself, especially on these roads where they have little restaurants where I can grab a cup of coffee and take a walk around to get the kinks out of my muscles. My children love these breaks, too, because they can buy a candy bar, or a comic book, or make a trip to the rest room. Children are so impatient on long journeys that it's easier on everone's nerves in the long run if you stop now and then!

But there are other drivers who, once they get on the road, are almost fanatical about not stopping. You'd think they were chained to an endless conveyor belt! Granted, there are roads where the "oases" are few and far between . . . but every highway has authorized, off-the-road rest areas where it would be simple to stop for a brief rest. Your reflexes, your concentration will be greatly imprived if you do get off the belt every once in a while . . . not to mention your nerves!

Superhighways are such a super subject that for the next few weeks I'll be talking about them. In the meantime, take care, huh?

Cat Scratches Daly City Girl

A $15,000 suit for damages was filed April 4 in Superior Court on behalf of a six-year-old Daly City girl who was scratched by a cat.

Defendants are the owners of the cat, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Bailey of San Carlos.

According to the suit, filed by Mrs. Stefi Rudolph of 265 Verano drive, Daly City, her daughter, D e n i s e, was attacked by the cat while visiting in the Bailey home last April 5. The suit alleges that the girl suffered severe head and face lacerations.

Women Voters Endorse Proposition A

The Leagues of Women Voters of San Mateo and South San Mateo County have announced their position in support of Proposition A, an Appointive County Superintendent of Schools, in a statement released by Mrs. Norton Benner, President of the San Mateo League, and Mrs. William J. Adams, Jr. President of the South San Mateo County League. "The two Leagues, as the result of a lengthy study of the County Charter and Education system urge support for Proposition A on the April 16th ballot.

"It is our belief that an appointive Superintendent responsible to an Elected County Board of Education will give the voter direct control at the county level. An elected Board must be responsive to the Voter, and a clarification of responsibility is imperative under present conflicting laws."

"State laws clearly specify the professional qualifications for a County Superintendent of Schools. At the present time the voters of this County are restricted by residence requirements to electing a candidate not only qualified professionally but residing at the time of filing within the County.

"During the past year one of the smaller local school districts in this county was able to appoint a new superintendent from sixty qualified applicants, not limited by residency.

"It seems pertinent that 13 years ago when Mr. Tormey first ran for election only three county residents had the necessary qualifications and also chose to enter a political contest. The elected County Board, responsive and responsible to the citizens, could obtain from anywhere in the United States, professional applicants who would be hired for their qualifications and not be subjected to a possibly unpleasant political contest. If Proposition A is passed. There is a basic anachronism when the County cannot have the wide choice of qualified superintendent that the smallest district has now."

To gain support for Proposition A the Leagues are conducting an intensive mail and phone campaign throughout the County asking citizens to support Proposition A. Any resident who wishes to endorse the Leagues position or receive information on the ballot measure should contact the South San Mateo County League office at 1100 Merrill Street, Menlo Park.

Back to School Classes for Parents

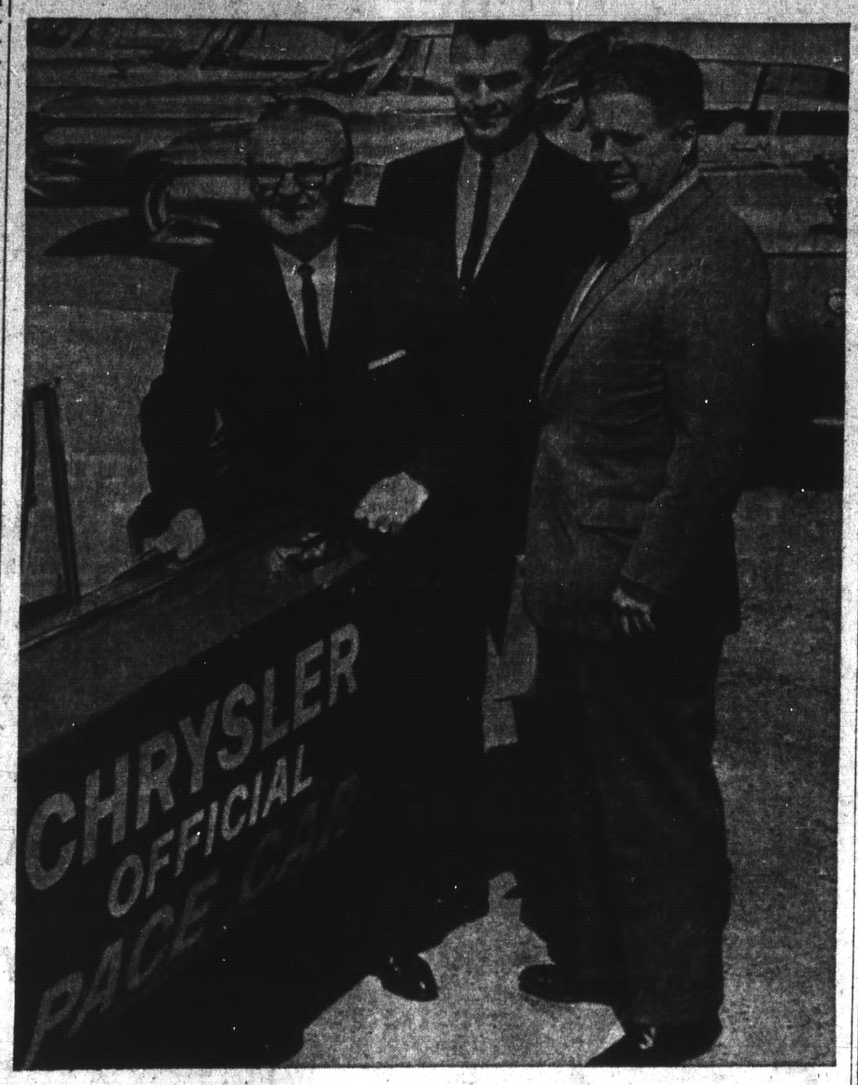

Parents of students at Alta Loma Junior High School in South San Francisco are back attending mathematics classes these evenings. Their children's enthusiasm for their mathematics c l a s s e s has aroused parental interest in the new mathematic terminology.

The classes are designed to familarize today's p a r e n t s with the mathematical terms used in the SMSG classes but they are not geared to teaching parents in order that they might teach their children.

These e v e n i n g classes taught by Mr. Ellis Blevine are offered as a service by the South San Francisco Adult School and are serving as a pilot program for next year when it is planned to extend these classes to other schools in the district provided that the tax election is successful. The adult school offers more than eighty different classes for adults and this semester more than 1600 are registered. Of these 1600, more than one hundred are pursuing the high school diploma program.

Further information about these classes or other classes may be obtained by calling the adult school office, JUno 9-6285 after 8:30 p. m.

Local Dealer Offers Replica of Official 'Indy' 500 Pace Car

SAN FRANCISCO — John Donahue and Jim Donahue, Jr.. of James E. Donahue, 6232 Mission Street, Daly City, at left, accepts keys to a brand new 1963 Chrysler 300 from C. A. Folker, Chrysler-Plymouth Division San Francisco Regional Manager.

The automobile is an exact replica of the Chryster 300 convertible—official pace car of the Indianapolis "500" Memorial Day Classic. Delivery of the car was part of a mass driveaway of Chryster 300's by some 55 Chrysler-Plymouth dealers from Northern California, Nevada and Utah. A limited number of pace car replicas is offered by the local dealership on a first-come-first-serve basis.

The powerful automobile is equipped with front bucket seats, center console with compass and lockable storage compartment in addition to special pace car medallion trim. Standard V-8 engine for the Chrysler 300 series is 305-horsepower with 382 cubic inch displacement. A 360-horsepower is also offered as optional equipment.

The powerful fixative the a n c i e n t Egyptians used in their perfumes which made the scents last for thousands of years, is still a secret.

California p r o d u c e s the major part of the nation's safflower and a substantial portion of the nation's caster beans and cottonseed.

At Half Moon Strip...

Screamers Due At Cal Drags

Spectacular will be the word for the upcoming 3rd Annual California State Championships to be held May 25 and 26, 1963 at the Half Moon Bay Drag Strip. For the 3rd consecutive year the popular Half Moon Bay Drag Strip has been chosen as the site for the biggest Drag Meet in the West. Entries for this event have already been received from all of the United States, with over 600 more entries expected.

A few headliners included in the car and driver line-up expected for the Big Meet:

TV star Tommy Ivo from Burbank, California. His super-charged Chrysler dragster is one of three cars in the United States to record an elapsed time of 7 seconds; Hayden Proffit, 1962 National stock car champion, driving a 1963 Plymouth; Stone, Woods and Cook from Los Angeles, the world's fastest and quickest street machine in drag racing using a super-charged Oldsmobile engine (140 miles per hour, e.t. 9 seconds); John Mazmanian from Whittier, California. His 1961 Corvette, the most fantastic sports car in drag racing, has a stock body and turns speeds of 138 miles per hour with e.t.'s of 10 seconds, just like a regular dragster he needs a parachute for stopping; Master and Richter from San Leandro, super-charged Oldsmobile, the world's fastest car in drag racing (speeds of over 196 miles per hour); the Champion Speed Shop Specila from South San Francisco, the defending state champion of 1962, super-charged Chevrolet with speeds of over 185 miles per hour; Forsberg and Hubbard from Hayward, California, the fastest and quickest non super-charged car in the world. Called the "Giant Killer" this car is the most feared in drag racing because of his many upsets over highly rated super-charged cars.

A total of $14,000 in prizes will be awarded in all classes. This event will be sanctioned by the National Hot Rod Association.

Last year's race drew a record 649 competitors and a crowd of 13,000 people, but according to Half Moon Bay directors, the entry list for this May's race is rapidly shaping into the greatest competition drag contest ever shown in the Bay Area.

THE GIRLS aren't part of the Oceana track team officially. An array of students from Oceana and Terra Nova watch an unidentified sprinter cross the line in the B's 75 yard dash. The girls in the red warm up jackets added color, the Tigers added the score—winning the dual meet handily.

FIVE MAN INFIELD—and the only one in the NPL at that—is the latest piece of skullduggery out of Westmoor. Coach Losberger should boast the tightest infield in the league. It is presently comprised of Hix. Payette, Contreras and Casper.

Tiger Thinclads Shred Oceana

Terra Nova nearly lost the Oceana track squad in the fog Thursday, out running them 92-21 in a NPL dual meet. In storming Oceana, the Tigers completed five sweeps, winning the 120 highs in 16.5; the 100 yard dash in 10.6; the 440 in 52.7; the high jump at 5-2 and the broad jump at 18-2½.

Bill Skrifvars of Oceana was the only varsity double winner of the day, however. Skrifvars' first victory came in the 880 yard run. Opening with a relatively slow first lap, turned in 63 seconds, Skrifvars lit all the burners for the last 440 yards to win in a 2:01.8 clocking. If that wasn't enough, the tall runner tore out of the blocks for a 22.9 winning effort in the 220 yard dash.

Behind a double win by Wiseman, Terra Nova's most promising sprinter, the Tigers also ruled the B's competition, winning in a close meet, 60-53. Oceana's Steve McCaughey turned an excellent 3:26.7 in the 1320. Oceana's Nunes, the Sharks future threat in the dashes and the hurdles took both the 75 yard dash and the 120 yard low hurdles to spark the Shark's C's to a 52-33 win.

TERRA NOVA THEME was written in 16.5 time as the Tigers' Wydemuller led the way in a four-man sweep over Oceana in the 120 yard high hurdles. Running in fog, occasional rain, and stiff Pacifica breezes, Terra Nova's fine sprinters won the meet handily.

Warrior Netmen Lose Rematch

The South San Francisco Tennis team suffered its third loss of the season when it lost to Lincoln in a rematch 5-2 on Lincoln's courts. The Warriors had defeated Lincoln 5-2 earlier in the season. Rich Mozzini won his match for the only singles victory. The No. 1 doubles team of Durham and Dong won their match 6-3, 6-3.

During Easter week the Warriors will enter two doubles teams in a tournament to be held in Tulare. They will be comprised of Edison Louie and Jim Eskelsen, and Carl Durham and Jerry Dong.

King City Meet Forecasts NPL Track Power Shift

The King City Relays, an annual affair that draws competitors from all over Northern California, was a showcase for the individual, not for the team this year. With a few exceptions. The Westmoor B team was one of those exceptions. The Ram lightweights finished second in their competition with 17½ points and that was accomplished against trackmen from nearly forty other schools.

The Rams' compact sprinter Pinelli tied the meet record for the 75 yard dash in 7.8 seconds in the trials, only to be nosed out in the finals while turning a 7.9 clocking. These are Westmoor records — by about a week. Pinelli is not over-fond of losing apparently. He won the 150 yard dash going away in 15 seconds flat. He also anchored the 440 relay team that hit the tape in 45.5 That, as mentioned, is the B relay team.

The Rams' Tracy won the B's 660 with a 1:25.7 sweep.

Oceana surprised more than a few people with their middle distance star Bill Skifvars who turned a 1:58 flat 880. Terrra Nova's Dan Vincent was two places back in fourth, but only a second slower at 1:59. The NPL clearly dominated the event.

Terra Nova's Hernandez ran the fastest NPL mile of the season, finishing fifth in 4:34. Westmoor's Beukers, only a Sophomore, took seventh in 4:39.5. Terra Nova's Wydemuller took the 120 lows in 13.9.

Oceana's Knutson picked up a ribbon in the B pole vault, while the Rams hurdler Pettit got things turned on to gain the finals.

The NPL track circuit has come of age, it seems. And with maturity the power of the league has changed hands. Terra Nova, whose sprinters captured the NPL relays, faces Jefferson, the fourth place team in the Relays and stands only a fair chance of winning. Tiger track mentor Dennis Landerman stated that the Jeffs have untouchable first places in Woller, throwing the shot and discus; Gotelli in the broad jump; and Willis in the high jump.

Landerman went on to suggest that the real power of the NPL now lies with Westmoor. With depth in nearly every event, the Rams boast several men that are the class of the league in their events. Pinelli, on a clear day, unhindered by wind, could turn the century in under 10 seconds. Pettit is still well off his potential for the season with Roberts of South City being the top contender in the hurdles. Kelly has progressed rapidly in the high jump, just missing 5-10 in the Ram-Jeff meet. Kelly's nemesis thus far has been Steve Willis of Jefferson.

Jefferson Wins from El Camino

Jefferson's trackman spiked El Camino three times last Thursday in a practice meet at the later's field.

Rich Waller and Leo Gotelli led the varsity charges to their 91-17 win. Waller scored wins in the discus and shot put, while Gotelli sprinted to victory in 120 high hurdles and won the broad jump.

The Jeff B8s won 83½ to 28½, while the C's completed the sweep by downing Camino 80-5. Mike Ballard of the B's turned in his best time of the year when he traversed the 330 in 37.1.

Rams, Warriors Lose

The host was a guest yesterday, and the host's host turned impolite in the second day of the South San Francisco baseball tourney. The tournament host Warriors played at, and lost, 7-6 to El Camino.

The first NPL teams to play in the tourney started off with a roar, each scoring two runs in the first inning. Then, like partners in a ballet they scored in unison through the sixth inning. In the third South City picked up a run, and so did El Camino. They repeated this in the fifth. In the sixth stanza the Warriors punched their fifth run across, only to find El Camino dropping all vestiges of etiquette in the last half of the frame and scoring twice. The seventh and crucial innings saw the Warriors retaliate with the tieing run.

Going into extra innings, Mark Avelar walked, stole second, stole third and scored the winning run when the ball was thrown into the outfield. El Camino shelled two pitchers, Wickersham and Olivera (taking over in the top of the fourth), with Davis, Brian Cute and Walt Harris all belting home runs.

Neil McNevin, Dave Simi, and Dan Crowe all got two hits for the Warriors. Jeff Jones drove a line drive over the fence for a four bagger.

Squaring off against Sacred Heart, Westmoor gave up two unearned runs in the first half of the opening stanza, then came pounding back for three runs on four hits in their half of the frame. Caster cracked a double off the base of the center field fence, Payette then dropped a short single into left, putting a man on first and second with one out. Bruce Hix, reverting to type then drove a towering drive over the center field fence, a short 270 feet away.

Then the game dissolved into what Coach Losberger called the worst game of the year. Executing six well intentioned errors (including a slow-roller that rolled down the third base line, hit a sprinkler and bounced over Hix's shoulder) the Rams booted heir lead toolose it, 8-4. Sacred Heart scored 2 unearned runs in the third, and one in the seventh. In the sixth there was a single, a sacrifice, the above roller, a single and another single. Results: SH 2 runs, with Williams cutting down a man at the plate and the catcher nailing the runner going for two. The losing pitcher was Tores, who pitched 5 2-3 innings, being relieved by Williams.

The Rams did hit, however, getting their four runs on eight hits. With a week and a half before the Ram-Jeff game, coach Losberger is, with not-so-quiet desperation, looking for a way to sort things out.

Jefferson's Steve Mazzera, coach of one of the strongest PL teams reflected on the advantage of being a part of the tourney, implying that the experience would be of great importance. He stated that the pre-season favorites for top pitching, Wickersham and Westmoreland of SSF and El Camino would find the leagues power more awesome than their help. Jefferson's power seems equal, Mazzerra added, to the hitting of the other NPL clubs.

Jeff, a team that only got into the win column last week, but got there in grand style, whipping Hillsdale 14-9 after dropping Aragon 4-3, boasts three hitters that could go well over the 300 mark in Morton,, Keeling and Sullivan. With a solid infield, and what Mazzera calls the best outfield in the league backing a deep, if questionable pitching staff, the Jeffs have the potential to go all the way. The South City Tournament should give a good indication of who the Indians are going to find blocking their path.

It's SPARE TIME

at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

Four more champions were crowned last week as Lucille's Beauty Salon won the Sunshine Handicap, the Stonestown Fish and Poultry team took the Golden Gate Handicap, Gallo Salami topped the Mayfair Strike League, and the Venetian Bakery five became kings of the Westmoor Handicap League. All teams have qualified for the opportunity to compete for the right to represent Westlake in the Champion of Champions Tournament.

Tim Curtin proved that he is definitely a night time bowler as he set a new high series in the Westlake Classic with a 649 series on games of 213-222-214. In the afternoon, bowling in the Brunswick Travel League, it was a different story however.

This is practice time at Westlake as the leagues come to an end and the lanes are available for a few weeks before the start of the summer leagues.

Pete Cacicedo led the Sleepers League as the end of competition came closer as he shot a 229 game and 579 series.

When Maxine Sweat's score reached 200 in the Tuesday morning YWCA League, she figured that was high enough so she stopped and took high game honors while Maureen Cano shot a 502 series to lead in that department.

Al Palmer shot a terrific 257 game to lead the American Masters 900 Scratch League with a 654 series, followed by John Schmidt with 627, Rich Brewer 623, Paul Wanstrath 622 and Tom Franse 600.

Connie Halsing took both high game and high series honors in the St. Emydius Mothers' Guild League as she rolled a 156 game and 423 series.

The "Bowlers of Tomorrow" take over Westlake this week as the Second Annual Westlake Bowl Easter Classic goes into high gear. The opening weekend found junior bowlers from San Pablo, Watsonville and all parts of the Bay Area on hand. Squad times have been set for Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week while the bowlers enjoy the Easter school vacation.

With over 200 entries during the first week, the Gold Coast Classic is off to a flying start with Phil Racchi and Dave Egigian winning paid entries in the Westlake Finals by leading their average classes during the weekly competition. Weekly rolloffs among the top sixteen in each class are held Saturdays and Sundays at 7 p.m. and noon respectively to determine additional qualifiers for the Westlake Finals. For bowlers of 180 average and over, a Weekend Gold Coast Sweeper is held after the 9 p.m. leagues every Friday.

One pin separated Ann Ikler and Bess Marston in the Evening Stars League as Ann took high series honors with 532 while Bess shot a 202 game to take top honors in that department.

Hal Wood found the range Tuesday night as he led the Southgate Mixed Fives with a 227 game and 584 series while Carol Thompson led the ladies with 169 and 452.

Vince Ferrigno was back on the strike trail last week as he led the Golden Gate Handicap with a big 628 series on a high game of 234.

Rams Warm-Up Drop Two, Tie One Game

Westmoor dropped two close games and hung on for an 11 inning tie in the third contest last week, losing to San Mateo High, 1-0 and the powerful Cal Frosh 5-3, equaling Burlingame 2-2.

With Davis on the mound for the Rams, the game ran scoreless through the full seven innings, and was an out away from the ninth inning when Long, ,the Bearcat center fielder banged a single into his own stamping grounds to score the only run of the game from third base. Westmoor's infielders Hix and Payette and fielder Parry collected the only hits of the afternoon for the Rams.

The Burlingame Panthers were a bit more hospitable, giving up 11 hits and committing one error. They were very little more generous however, allowing only two runs. The fourth inning told the story for the Rams. The session began with Steve Schmuck drawing a walk. He was put in so scoring position when Bob Hansen singled. It looked like both runners would be stranded when Al Contreras came up with two outs and lined a long single that scored both runners.

The Burlingame nine evened the score in the bottom of the sixth, combining a walk and two triples. The battle waged with out additional scoring and until the final inning the game seemed ready to go on indefinitely. Then in the bottom of the eleventh, with one on the Panther center fielder drove deep into center field, only to be robbed by Ernie Ertola who made a beautiful running catch to end the game.

Jeff and Oceana Lose to Serra in Three-Way Meet

The Jefferson and Oceana mermen ventured out of the NPL to take on Serra High School in a trianqular meet, finding more swimming power than they had bargained for, and losing 84-66 (Jefferson)-5 (Oceana).

In the varsity meet the only first place finishes garnered by the local teams were the medley relay and the free-style relay, both won by Jefferson. The times were 2:04.6 and 1:47.3, respectively. Serra boasted two exceptional swimmers in Banachowski and Ehrhorn, both double winners.

The Jefferson B's, the top of the NPL, led the way in their meet winning over Oceana and Serra in that order with a score of 60-43-28. Jim Iversen won the 100 free in 1:01.8, while Gilber, Astleford and Iwahaski, also winners for the Jeffs, won the 100 yard individual medley, the 100 yard and the 100 yard breast stroke, respectively. Nance of Oceana was a double winner, copping the 50 yard freestyle in 27.3 and the 50 yard fly in 29.5.

The Jefferson C's, finishing second behind Serra, also had a double winner in Partier who won the 50 yard fly and backstroke in 31.3 and 32.1. The final score of the Cmeet was Serra-45, Jefferson-38, and Oceana-15.

SEA BOWL NEWS

All results of the women's division tournament at Sea Bowl will appear in the column next week. None of the results were conclusive except to point out that the men are going to have to do some powerful shooting to overcome these gals and their fine efforts.

All summer leagues are in the process of being formed and a few are scheduled to take the floor soon. The adult junior league is soon to start some new teams and new people in the league.

The gradual upgrading of the leagues at Sea Bowl has been due to two main factors: New people moving into the area and the starting progress of some of the older bowlers in the immediate area. The most important factor in the continuing interest in bowling seems to be the large number of like minded people in this sport. If you have noticed, most teams seem to have about the same kind of people on them. They are all golfers, fishermen, doctors, electricians, etc. No, but they have an outlook on life almost always congenial to the thinking of all. Any time this is not the case you will find the team reforming or gradually getting new members to take the place of those who do not feel a part of the team.

Most teams who win their leagues are those teams who have stayed together from the beginning of the league. Many times I have heard a member say at the end or near the end of the league that it was a shame their team didn't start together because they would "walk away" with the league. The men's division bowls this weekend so plan to come down and see some of the fun.

Church Basketball Leagues End Play

The basketball teams of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church concluded play last week in the San Francisco Church League sponsored by the San Francisco Council of Churches. Six games each were played by the two local teams in the High School and Junior High divisions.

The High School team finished with a three and three record, defeating the Red Shield team of the Salvation Army last week by a score of 45 to 44 on a last second field goal by Craig Helgoth. Other scorers were Roger Foss with fourteen points, Tim Tweedie with ten, Craig Helgoth with ten, Lee Graff with nine, John Arnott with two, and Bill Eagleton with none. Joaquin Andrade did not play the last game. The coach has been Ray Corona.

The Junior High team of twelve players ended with a two won and four lost record, losing to the Red Shield team in the last game. Ricky Landess and John Guz were the coaches. The coordinator for the local teams has been Bob Coghlan with Rev. Herbert Tweedie being the local pastor. This is the fourth year of play for two such teams from the local church. Games have been played in gymnasiums of various Junior High Schools of San Francisco. The boys must be attendants at the local church and not have played on public High School teams during the current year.

Volleyball Bounce Set for Saturday

Members of six junior high teen clubs, sponsored by the Daly City recreation department, are looking forward to the coed volleyball tournament scheduled for Saturday, April 20, in the War Memorial Community Center gym.

The all-day tourney will feature four divisions of five teams each. Each of the junior teen clubs will be represented by three teams, each with the exception of the Telstars, who have entered five teams.

Play is slated to begin at 10 a.m. and continue to 5 p.m. A sock hop dance will follow the championship game. During the dance, the awards will be presented.

Shelton Breaks League Record; Paces South City

South San Francisco's Mike Shelton led the Warrior mermen to a 74-9 washout over the under-manned Oceana crew, breaking a North Peninsula League record in the process.

Swimming in the 50 yard free style sprint, Shelton opened all the faucets for a 24.5 clocking. The Warrior ace also won the 100 yard fly in 1:07.5. Gates was the only winner for the Sharks, taking the 100 yard free. Gates also placed second in the 50 free.

Oceana came on strong for the B competition to win, 46-30. Nance led the way with firsts in the 50 yard fly and 50 yard free style races.

The C's meet went to SSF, 43-16. The C's time in the 200 yard free relay bettered the varsity time by more than a second, South City winning in 2:02.

Daly City Plea In Welfare Case

Dixie Russell, 25, of 193 Santa Barbara street, Daly City pleaded guilty befor Municipal Court Judge Marcel Biscay to a charge of welfare fraud. Inspector Adolph Fernandez of the district attorney's office said Mrs. Russell failed to report to the county welfare department that she was living in common-law relationship with a man while receiving county aid. The case was referred for a probation report prior to sentencing.

Relays

while stating that Ram mentor Herkinrath has brought his charges a long way, still has a stable full of runners, headed by Wydemuller and Vincent. Unfortunately for the Tigers and fortunately for everyone else, Oceana received many tracksters of high calibre when Terra Nova's student body was split this year.

This week Westmoor is preparing for the remaining meets with an inter-squad decathlon while the rest of the NPL is maintaining sundry workout schedules. At the Ram track all that has thus far been proved is that Coach Herkinrath is a one man track team. The ensuing battles will prove just how much of a prognosticator tiger coach Landerman really is. Could be he's just a pessimist.

Ram Trackmen Rip South City

The Westmoor cindermen withstood fog, wind, and a soaked track to defeat the South City Warriors last Friday, 66-47. Westmoor swept the mile, broad jump and pole vault from the visitors, making the weather the least of the Warriors troubles.

Pettit and Roberts continued their dual for NPL hurdle supremcy, Pettit met the South City speed merchant in the 180 lows closing him out at the wire in 21.6 seconds. Roberts won the 120 highs going away, with a 16.3 clocking. Steve McQueen, previously undefeated in dual meet competition, met his match in the Rams' Dennis Tracy who won the tight race in 52.8.

The Warriors lost to the improving Ram B's and C's 93-20 and 76-10.

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

Pale pink, daffodil yellow, sky blue — a garden of flower hats on the luncheon guests as the largest crowd of the season turned out for last Thursday's YWCA fashion show. Bright blossom hats, too, on the models as they showed the latest in Easter fashions from Penney's. Charming the luncheon guests were, too, were the Daly City Belle-Tones, who presented a delightful program of Easter music.

Dressed in a rainbow of pastels, the members of the talented choral group included director Patti Stolz, Betty Elliott, Nancy Gensley, Constance Kaiser, Jean Lewin, Jackie Madden, Reta Poole, Betty Vincent, Anne Dissing, Kay Kaufman, Jolyne Liberati, Helen Boyd, Susan Boyd, Anne Peters, Marie Ricetti, Gladys Schultz and Alice Walker.

A parade of Easter fashions followed the musical part of the program. Stealing the show were brothers Perry and Kitch Fox, quite jaunty in their brightly colored swimwear; dark-haired Connie McGuirk, simply dreamy in white nylon and lacy hat and bag, and tiny Kathy Odenthal, odorable in navy blue suit and white sailor. Smartly casual Maxine Sweat wore pink capris with floral top. Definitely a show stopper was Beatrice Lampe in her chic "Mary Quant" sports outfit in bright blue and white combination. A smart beige cotton dress and hat modeled by Mary DeWitt. Rating "ohs" and "ahs" was Peggy Miller in off-white coat and elegant appliqued flower hat. An unusual pale yellow knit with brown leaf design modeled by Teddy Ervin. Brilliant aqua in a two-piece ensemble was shown by Pearl Bradshaw. A flowing drape of brilliant shocking pink highlighted a party gown modeled by Cynthia Tauber. Most dramatic in all black cocktail dress and tiny veil hat with single pink rose, was Florence Schwab. Exotic was Ginger Straight's party gown featuring solid black top and bouffant skirt of brilliant black and white print.

Another fashion show rating bouquets last week was one presented by "Little Jeff" PTA before a large gathering in the multi-purpose room of Jefferson Elementary School. Their show was titled "How to Make Pop Proud," and most of the "Pops" in the audience were beaming beacuse all the fashions shown were made by the "Moms," many of an original design. The models included Jamie Ellen Torrigino, Diane Cortopassi, Stephanie Westphal, Carolyn and Kathy Archer, Bonnie Archer and Baby Ellen, Paul and Joey Masini, Joni Bain, Gail Riagi, David Archer, Susan Bain, Chynthia Themoleas, Debby and Terry Cone, Ronnie and Nancy Palmieri, Edda Palmieri, Sandy Ricetti, Susan Themoleas, Janice Smith, Eleanor Torrigino, Patricia Ondusko, Brenda Tiedje, Eve Biagi, Ginger Masini, Louise McGinley and Pat Bain.

Our community leader this week is another of those dedicated leaders who take a great interest in their community yet modestly assert they "really haven't done very much." Formerly living down the peninsula she was associated with San Jose State College in the teaching of audiometric laboratory, and was audiometrist with Santa Clara schools. On a volunteer basis she developed a student nurse handbook for a peninsula hospital. She also served as head nurse of the San Jose hospital.

Since coming to Daly City she has served on Friends of the Library Board (is chairman of the coming evening book review) coordinated the activities of the Rotaryanns and has been doing volunteer rehabilitation work. She also holds a life membership in PTA.

Residents of Westlake for seven years we salute Maryella Stratton as community leader of the week. Discussing the community she said "living in Daly City is a fresh, invigorating challenge, for the dominating features in our local society seem to stress a cooperative growth in service and culture." The Strattons live at 195 South Mayfair and have two married children and one grandchild.

SOCIAL WHIRL: An important social event next week for the Daly City Rotaryanns is the coming Rotary district conference in Palo Alto when members will attend a luncheon and tour Sunset House. Representing the local groups will be Mrs. Paul Hupf, Mrs. Harry R. Rasmussen and Mrs. Vinton Stratton. A highlight of the social schedule too is the district governor's ball on Friday night which will be attended by many localites.

A most interesting program next week, April 16, to be enjoyed by Daly City Newcomers (Romona Birke, Director) when they have luncheon at Toto's followed by a tour of the orchid farm.

The Y-Wives will go to Europe next week, by film that is. They will enjoy a fascinating program with TWA representative Bill Waller (who had just returned from Paris the day before) telling about a jet trip to Europe and illustrating his talk with a colored film. Also the "do's and don'ts" of planning a vacation explained by Panorama representative Henry Ewald.

Planned by the Daly City Friends of the Library a most interesting program on April 24 —an evening book review with a guest panel. Do plan to go—we're sure you'll have a most stimulating evening.

Between Us Gals:

Library Legislators Like Lots of Letters

By Bunny Gillespie

How long has it been since you've written your representative in Sacramento? And how long has it been since you've invested five cents, a little stationery and ten minutes of writing time for "the good of the order?"

Should your self-analysis show negative answers to the above queries, and you choose to do yourself a favor and rectify that situation, your California neighbors can use your services. Their names are myrald, but the people who are speaking for them, as a group, are few, far thinking and friendly.

What they would have you do is to consider the currently pending Assembly Bill Number 590, and then contact your legislative liason advising him of your concern for the passing of the Bill and urging his personal support.

Assembly Bill 590 is the Bill introduced in January to the California Legislature's regular general session by Assemblyman Jerome Waldie of Antioch which would, if passed implement improvements to public library services. The improvements are those suggested by the California Public Library Commission (appointed by Governor Knight in 1957 to study library problems in California), the Assembly Interim Committee on Education (which started work in 1955) and the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Education.

Recognition of the educational purpose of the public library, as a supplement to the formal system of free public education and a source of information and inspiration to all ages, is mentioned in the California Education Code.

With this thought in mind, the California Citizens for Better Libraries, a state-wide group chaired by Samuel Leask, Jr. of Los Angeles and Santa Cruz, this week addressed a letter to one of North San Mateo County's most ardent and ambitious feminine library boosters. She is Mrs. LeRoy W. Larsen of Garden Village, herself an accredited librarian, and long a believer in ever better library service to readers and researchers.

As a result of the communique to Mrs. Larsen (Aida), the local lady is encouraging acquaintances to renew their efforts towards the passage of a library aid bill. Her plea, in part, reads: "The library legislation is in the Legislature again! Assembly Bill 590 was passed by the Assembly Education Committee last week and will come up very shortly for hearing by the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. Since Assemblyman Carl A. Britschgi is vice chairman of that committee, I'm trying to get as many people as are willing to write him urging his personal support . . ."

Aida is not alone in endorsing the provisions set forth in Assembly Bill 590. In the 1962 election, both gubernatorial candidates spoke in favor of it and, in his inaugural address, Governor Brown announced that provision of funds for the improvement of library services throughout the state was a part of his program.

With explanatory help from a brochure provided by the San Mateo County Library, the prsovisions of Assembly Bill 590 are found to include a program of state grants to local public libraries aimed to improve and extend local service, under administration of the State Librarian. Further a 9-member Public Library Development Board would be appointed by the Governor to advise the State Librarian.

The following figures are reported to reflect the library situation in San Mateo County: Total volumes per capita in public libraries dropped from 2.029 in 1940 to 1.355 in 1960; Employees (in terms of number of full time equivalent employees 10,000 population) dropped from 3.9 in 1949 to 3.1 in 1960; and operating expenditure per cap in constant purchasing power increased slightly, from 2.021 in 1940 to 2.317 in 1960.

Throughout the Bay Area (and the rest of the state), the picture is similar.

The number of books per cap has declined to the level of 1921!

"We are trying to meet space age needs with libraries hampered by services suitable to the horseless carriage decades," states the county brochure.

"We were shocked," states Mr. Leask and the CCBL, "to learn of the desperate plight into which our California public libraries have fallen."

With adequate support Assembly Bill 590 will bring new life into library services.

The proposed program for San Mateo County suggests the formation of a system composed of the seven city libraries and the county library.

Services, to benefit everyone, are planned for the geographic and population basis comprising the total county.

Books and material services would be expanded to strengthen book resources of each library, and broaden the scope and depth of materials available throughout the county; to broaden the scope of periodical holdings through addition of new titles, indexes and holdings of back files, and expansion of document holdings.

Bibliographic resource plans call for augmented reference services, including microfilm files of the NY Times; teletype communication among participating libraries for accelerated inter-library loan and inter-library reference services; the up-dating and current maintenance of existing co-operation bibliographic tools and establishment and maintenance of Union catalog showing holding of all libraries within the county.

Specialized services, under hoped-for Assembly Bill 590 aid, would provide an audio-visual program; publicity and display co-ordinator; of services to young people additional children's libraries, and Bookmobile service for outlying areas of cities such as Colma,, San Bruno and South San Francisco.

Additional equipment for county library technical processing center would be provided, as well as quick delivery service, storage accommodation, a pooled depository for gifts, a resource collection in great depth, and additional planning to consider the needs, resources and relationships with other libraries of the Bay Area.

Steven Allen, Dr. Frank Baxter, Herb Caen, Hon. Goodwin J. Knight, Fleet Admiral Chester Nimitz, Irving Stone, Dr. Albert Shumate and Earl Warren, Jr., are some of the people who, like Mrs. Larsen, favor Assembly Bill 590.

Other book buffs are invited to join them in support of solving California's library problem.

"MEMOS" FROM YOUR Stylist

By: MR. ROBERT

To some extent, the shape of the face can be changed by shaping the eyebrows.... Many women are inclined to treat the chore of brow-plucking quite carelessly; this should be done with care.

First, use a commercial preparation, hot towels or alcohol to open the pores. Stretch the skin with the fingers and pluck firmly, one at a time, in the direction the brow grows.

Finish off by applying pads dampened with witch hazel to the plucked area.

Let's forget eyebrows for the moment and speak of woman's crowning glory, her hair. Any and all hair problems can be beautifully solved where beauty is by design and not by accident — at MR. ROBERT'S SALON OF BEAUTY. Come in and meet Bev. Sohnrey, our new operator, who is a specialist in hair-styling. You can expect personalized attention to your needs at MR. ROBERT'S SALON OF BEAUY, 198 School Street.

Talk On Problem: Unwed Mother

Miss Jean Bolten, executive director of the Florence Crittenden Home for unwed mothers, will speak in this area on Wednesday, April 17 at 10 a. m. at the Broadmoor Community Center. (White stret off 87th street.)

Both Miss Bolten and Mrs. Helene Nemschoff, who is the home's volunteer services coordinator, will explain to the public their own first hand knowledge of the mounting problem confronting every community, that of the unwed mother. Also they will answer any questions from the audience.

This will be the first meeting of the newly formed Northern Peninsula Circle of the Florence Crittenden Home of San Francisco. They are a group of volunteers whose activity, interest and support will be directed toward the welfare of the unmarried mothers who are receiving care and services from the Home.

It was quite necessary that this Circle be formed, because many girls from this area have benefited and are benefiting from the services of the Home.

Miss Bolten's message promises to be a startling revelation for any community.

Attendance does not obligate anyone to join the Circle, however the Circle feels that every responsible mother should hear what Miss Bolten has to say.

Remember the date, April 17, 10 a. m. Broadmoor Community Center. There will be no charge, and everyone is welcome.

Code of Behavior To Be Given at Fernando Rivera

The Student Council at Fernando Rivera under the direction of President Joel Carrara, plans to present to the student body its "Code of Behavior" Friday, April 26, at 1:10 p.m.

For several weeks the student officers and a special committee appointed by the president has been in the process of developing this code so that each pupil at Fernando Rivera might know specifically what is expected from him by others in his school day of living, learning, working, playing, and growing up. The code includes self-testing items for determining reasonableness, cooperation, reliability, and pleasantness in addition to specific rules covering the major activities included in a school day.

Special effort was made to write the code in such a way as to illicit a positive reaction and a desire from each pupil to follow the suggestions. The student council committee was composed of Joel Carrara, Craig Morton, chairman,, David Cordero, Joseph Cordero, Edward Schermerhorn, Richard Sampino, Richard Karp, Richard Manning, Thomas Gernhardt, Nicolas Deffterios.

Fontana Wins Safety Award

Elio A. Fontana of V. Fontana Monument Company was recently presented a safety award on behalf of his employees. The award was for eight full years without a lost-time job injury and represented over 160,000 man hours worked. Mr. Phil Wirtz, Safety Engineer of the State Compensation Insurance Fund made the presentation.

V. Fontana & Company, one of the largest monument manufacturers and retailers on the Pacific Coast have in the past ten years installed new machinery and additional safety features at their factory to insure the safest possible condition for their men. All employees have been taught to handle new safety features and instructed in new safety methods.

Fontana widely known among local businessmen and active in community activities said "Safety is an important ingredient in our operations and only through a high degree of safety consciousness and hard work have we been able to achieve this record."

Elio A. Fontana, the fifth generation of Fontana in the monument field, received this award in the name of V. Fontana & Company representing the partners which include his sister and mother, Mrs. Gloria Tomars, and Mrs. Valerio Fontana.

The presentation was made to Elio A. Fontana at their main office location at 7600 Mission Street in Colma, California.

First Graders Visit Museum

The first grade class of Miss Marlene Elsbree at Olympic School visited the Josephine Randall Museum in San Francisco on March 21. Mrs. Melvin Klein accompanied the group.

An excellent explanation was made of each animal by the tour guide and then the children were allowed to explore on their own.

The museum has a good collection of live animals and the class enjoyed watching some little chicks hatch.

Organ Memorial To M. Pauline Brown

There was a two-sided surprise for the congregation at the Palm Sunday services of Broadmoor Presbyterian church. First, an announcement was made establishing the M. Pauline Brown Memorial Organ Fund, honoring the memory of the late Daly City educator, civic leader, and churchwoman.

Immediately after the announcement of the fund was made, two representatives of the church's Junior High Youth Fellowship, the Misses Phyllis Chiosso and Lisa Hollenbeck, came forward and presented the very first donation to the Organ Fund, a check for $50, proceeds of a carnival night held recently.

The advisor to the youth group, Ralph Henn, is a choir member, and as such had heard much discussion regarding the need for a new organ, and the possibility of a fund drive for such a purpose. He took the 'rumor' to his young people, and they immediately voted their contribution, and had the check ready when Delmar Severy, director of music at Broadmoor Presbyterian, and Ken Gillespie, spokesman for the Organ Fund Committee, revealed the plans for a new installation.

Mrs. Brown was a member of the 57th street church until her death in 1959, at the age of 84. A well-known and loved figure in Daly City and Colma, she was responsible for much of the education afforded to early residents of foreign birth. A legacy was made to her church of $1,000, to be used only for the establishment of a permanent fixture. The Board of Trustees, custodians of the money, voted to apply her request toward the purchase of a new organ. Mrs. Brown also left a beautiful silver tea service to the Women's Association, to be used for special teas and other church social functions.

The Organ Fund Committee includes representatives of all church departments, each of which will undertake special fund-raising projects to benefit the Fund. An estimated $10,000 will be spent to equip the sanctuary with an organ and accompanying high-fidelity, stereophonic sound reproduction system.

County School Board

The return to "basic education," or "life-adjustment versus basic education" seems to be the big issue in the impending April 16 election of the county board campaign.

The incumbents have stoutly defended the present program, saying it provides a good, basic education. The county's course of study, they said, is widely copied throughout the state.

The pro-Rafferty, non-incumbent slate has taken to task the incumbent slate for their "status-quo" stand, claiming that there are several areas for improvement in the County Curriculum Guide which is used as the base for every school in San Mateo County.

The present board contends there is no dispute between the two "slates" as to the importance of teaching the "fundamentals," and claims that since 1956 they have been tightening and toughening the curriculum.

This claim is supported by county educators, who have claimed the pro-Rafferty slate is throwing up a smoke screen in order to win the election.

According to the County Teachers Association bulletin 'There is apparently no agreement even among the incumbents as to the meaning of the term basic education. To some, it is an inkblot term, to be interpreted in many different ways. To some parents, it means a return to reading, writing and arithmetic plus history and geography or just to calling the subjects by these terms.'

Apparently, then, basic education means different things to different people.

An affirmative vote on Proposition A, on the ballot, to determine that the office of superintendent of county schools should be appointed, has been strongly supported by County Supt. James Tormey, who feels that an "intolerable" situation exists when both the board and the superintendent are elected.

The Times-Record is inclined to think the pro-Rafferty slate of candidates is using the terms "life-adjustment" and "basic education" as a screen to gain a seat on the county board.

In this light, this paper takes a stand in favor of retention of the present board with an appointed Superintendent of Schools.

Reactionaries, 1963

In the days when labor was organizing its great drive to better the lot of the working man, its goal was progress. Today, having reached a peak of power and plenty, labor has become the great reactionary.

Witness its desperate battle against automation and realistic work practices in the shipping industry. Witness its determination to keep the nation's railroads on economic and operational standards that were acceptable in 1900 but catastrophic to the economy today.

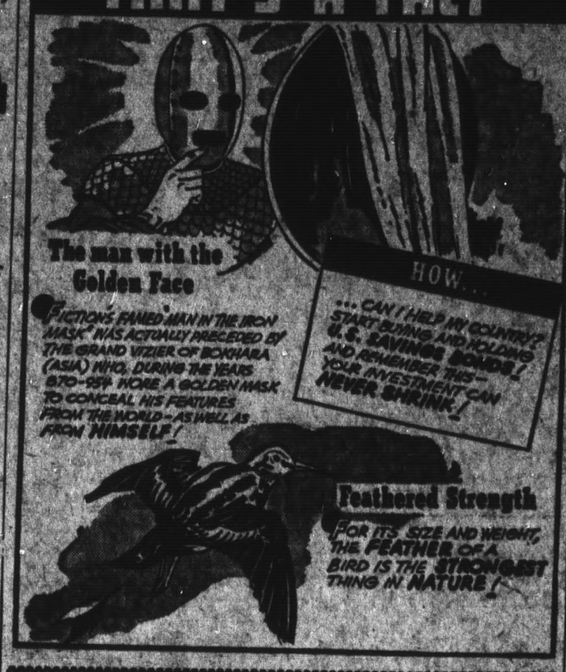

A federal court last year declared that in 1961 the railroads paid more than half a billion dollars for "unneeded employees occupying redundant positions; pay for time not worked" and other costs of featherbedding. Although the court held that the rails had a right to manage their own business, and the Supreme Court has upheld that decision, labor still continues its intransigent opposition to mergers which careful study shows will strengthen the industry and its employment potentials. It maintains its determination to preserve antiquated, wasteful work rules the country can no longer afford.

Certainly automation and change to meet technological progress are painful in the transition period. But the solution does not lie in stagnation. A truly alert and wise labor leadership would seek the solution in cooperation and initiative, not footdragging.

THAT'S A FACT

The View From ...Behind the Badge

HOW TO FIX A TRAFFIC TICKET . . .

The motorist receives a traffic citation for an alleged moving violation. He is naturally unhappy about being such a recipient of a summons.

He may not deny that he was at fault, or he may deny that he had bent a law. He will seldom deny that it was he who was behind the wheel of a given vehicle at a given time and place, for the handwritten citation will attest to these facts. This attestation will bear the signature of both the motorist and the complaining officer; usually, then, the motorist is unhappy about the violation allegation itself.

The motorist's arguments may take one of several tacks. He may say "I had it coming and I am going to pay the fine." This one is usually a rare and truthful man.

He may say "I'm not guilty of this violation, and I am so going to plead before the judge." And we may say "Good for you. This is your right and privilege. Good luck." Although the citing officer feels that he was correct in his allegation of wrong doing, else he would not have issued the moving violation citation, he certainly has no complaint at the motorist pleading "Not Guilty."

The motorist sometimes says "I'm guilty, but I can't afford the fine."

Or he may say "I'm guilty but I can't afford another moving violation on my record."

Or he may say "I'm not guilty, the officer was wrong, but I don't want to lose the work time to go to court."

Some of those who fall into the last three mentioned categories sometimes try to get the matter adjudicated prior to appearing in court. Briefly, for whatever reason, they endeavor to "Fix" the ticket.

In the past, given the right time and place, this was possible too often in too many different departments on too many occasions. This is now increasingly difficult to accomplish on most organizations most of the time.

Mechanical procedures have been improved so as to eliminate the probability and/or possibility of ticket fixing. When the motorists receive citations, their recourse is to the court. If, in addition to the citation itself, the motorist has a complaint about the officer's conduct, a report to his superiors will have that set of circumstances investigated—and the complainant will be advised as to the outcome of such investigation.

With respect to the individual officer, each has real friends and so-called friends. A real friend will not ask him to fix a ticket. A person who asks him to fix a ticket is not a real friend. The fact that it is mechanically extremely difficult, close to impossible, to "Fix" a ticket is not withstanding.

Ticket fixing is more dangerous, in the aggregate, than outright graft. Any bribe, of any kind, is very bad, and is never tolerated where and when discovered. An individual ticket is a little thing, however, and most recipients of same are honest motorists.

The thing is, that these "innocent" little tickets are very numerous. Added together they are far more numerous than are other police incidents such as bookmaking, gambling, prostitution, and the like. Added together, ticket tampering can be more serious than can any other type of, on the surface, more serious collusion.

It is not only a question of honesty, then; it is also a question of bad ethics, bad business, and faulty investment of time and effort. The officer who will fix a ticket is like a doctor who will split a fee, or an attorney who will not prosecute his case or defend his client vigorously.

And the person who tries to get a ticket fixed is quite dishonest.

Affairs Of State

By Henry G. MacArthur

SACRAMENTO, -(CNS)—The proposal to adopt an anti-discrimination housing bill, and put it in the hands of the Fair Employment Practices Commission for enforcement, is virtually doomed at this session of the legislature, according to the two leaders of the senate and assembly.

Thus, AB 1240, by Assemblyman Byron Rumford, D-Berkeley, is scheduled to travel the road of a lot of unnecessary legislation, straight to the waste-basket.

Curiously enough, the so-called "anti - discrimination" bill's fate was decided by the voters in Rumford's own home town. The voters of Berkeley last week defeated an attempt to pass a city ordinance which contained in principle the same provisions of AB 1240, which Rumford is trying to foist on the whole state of California.

Both Hugh M. Burns, D-Fresno, speaker pro-tem of the Senate, and Jesse Unruh, D-Los Angeles, speaker of the house, agreed that the bill has little chance following the Berkeley vote, to ever see the light of day, let alone reach the desk of Governor Edmund G. Brown, who undoubtedly is waiting to write it into law.

"When non whites organize for equal rights and privileges," said Burns, no rightful thinking person can disagree. But the attitude now seems to be a demand for special privileges and special rights on account of race or color.

"The Berkeley election results show the public is not in favor of granting any special privileges or rights. The public cannot benefit—more by removing rights from one group and giving them to another."

This, in effect, is exactly what the Rumford bill would accomplish. It would take away the right of a private property owner to handle his property as he choses, and unleash a pack of bureaucrats in the form of the fair employment practices commission to dictate what a citizen can do, and what he cannot do with his property.

Even Unruh, who favors a bill against discrimination in housing, said that while the bill might be approved by the assembly, he felt in view of the Berkeley election that no bill with penal provisions, making it a crime to refuse to rent to persons because of race, creed or color, would not pass the legislature.

Already, the state of California through the fair employment practices commission, may dictate the manner in which private employers may operate their business. The FEPC law was bull- dozed through the legislature during the first session held during Governor Brown's term. Not satisfied with forcing business dictation on the state, the agitators for FEPC decided on expansion as a further intrusion into private rights, which a good many people believe are guaranteed to them through the constitutions of the nation and the state.

The city of Berkeley has always been an open-minded community, where people are willing to try new ideas, and where thinking is definitely more liberal than in a lot of other communities in California.

The vote clearly indicated, therefore, that the people of Berkeley are rather tired of intrusions on their homes and property, and that even a liberal minded community will call a halt somewhere along the line to the constant pushing of the professional race organizations.

Letters to The Editor

Editor: The following letter of commendation was received by this department commending the following men for their actions at a fire at 930 Oakmont drive:

Fire Department
Daly City, Calif.
Dear Chief:

This letter is to express appreciation for my wife an I for the quick and efficient service you and your boys rendered at my house last Wednesday night February 20, 1963. It was only a matter of minutes between the alarm and arrival of the department.

Further, there are no words to convey our thoughts and regards to the consideration given to the rest of our home while the boys were putting out the fire, and the way the fellows clean up after the fire.

All of Daly City (Westlake) can be proud of their fire department and my wife and I will do our best in your behalf.

Yours in Respect

Editor: The following letter commendation was received by the police department.
Chief of Police
Daly City Police Department
Daly City, California
Dear Sir:

This morning I had the opportunity to observe firsthand, the courtesy and helpfulness of a member of your department. I know that you are aware of the frequency that one who is making a career of serving the public, receives criticism rather than praise.

This morning, while traveling to work, I had the misfortune of having a flat tire on Skyline Boulevard immediately after clearing the first stop light within Daly City limits. Heavy commute traffic would not permit me to move to the right-hand side of the road. While attempting to get a solid footing for my jack, a member of your department arrived on the scene and through his assistance I was able to move to an area on the right-hand side where the tire change was accomplished in a few minutes.

As a result of my anxiety to change tires as rapidly as possible in order to avoid any traffic conjection or possible accident, I failed to get the officer's badge number or his name. I am sure that records will indicate who was on traffic patrol duty on Skyline Blvd. between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 a. m. this morning.

I would like to express my deep appreciation and sincere thanks to this officer for his courtesy and assistance. With this type of individual on the Daly City police force, it leaves no doubt in my mind as to the quality of police protection the citizens of Daly City receive.

Sincerely,
L. A. STARR

Assemblyman Tom Carrell, D-San Fernando, said he will continue his campaign to have the sale of airplane glue to minors prohibited unless the glue manufacturers find new chemicals to use in the product.

Carrell's bill to restrict sale of airplane glue to persons 21 years old or over was rejected this week by the assembly committee on public health. Carrell and other witnesses said many young persons sniffed the airplane glue—sometimes up to 20 tubes of it a day—and got a sort of intoxication.

A doctor testified it caused damage to various parts of the body. However, committee members argued that hundreds of thousands of thousands of youths who make model airplanes would be penalized by the law.

At this week's hearing, it was announced that new chemicals are being perfected to use in the glue which would make it harmless. Assemblyman W. Byron Rumford, D-Berkeley, committee chairman, said the new glue probably would be on the market before a bill could take effect anyway.

Meanwhile, Carrell said he has another bill before another committee which he will keep alive until he is convinced the glue manufacturers have produced a safe product. Carrell's other bill, before the criminal procedure committee, would require that all airplane glue be sold by a pharmacist.

The assembly education committee has killed a bill by Assemblyman Alfred H. Song, D-Monterey Park, AB 99, which would have prohibited law enforcement officers from interrogating school students unless their parents had been notified first.

Most law enforcement agencies in the state were opposed to the bill.

Governor Edmund G. Brown has said he will support a bill introduced by two assemblymen which would put the question of outlawing professional boxing in California before the voters next year.

Brown had announced last week, following the serious injury of featherweight Davey Moore in Los Angeles, that he would urge the people be asked to outlaw the sport. Moore, who lost the championship in the bout, died this week.

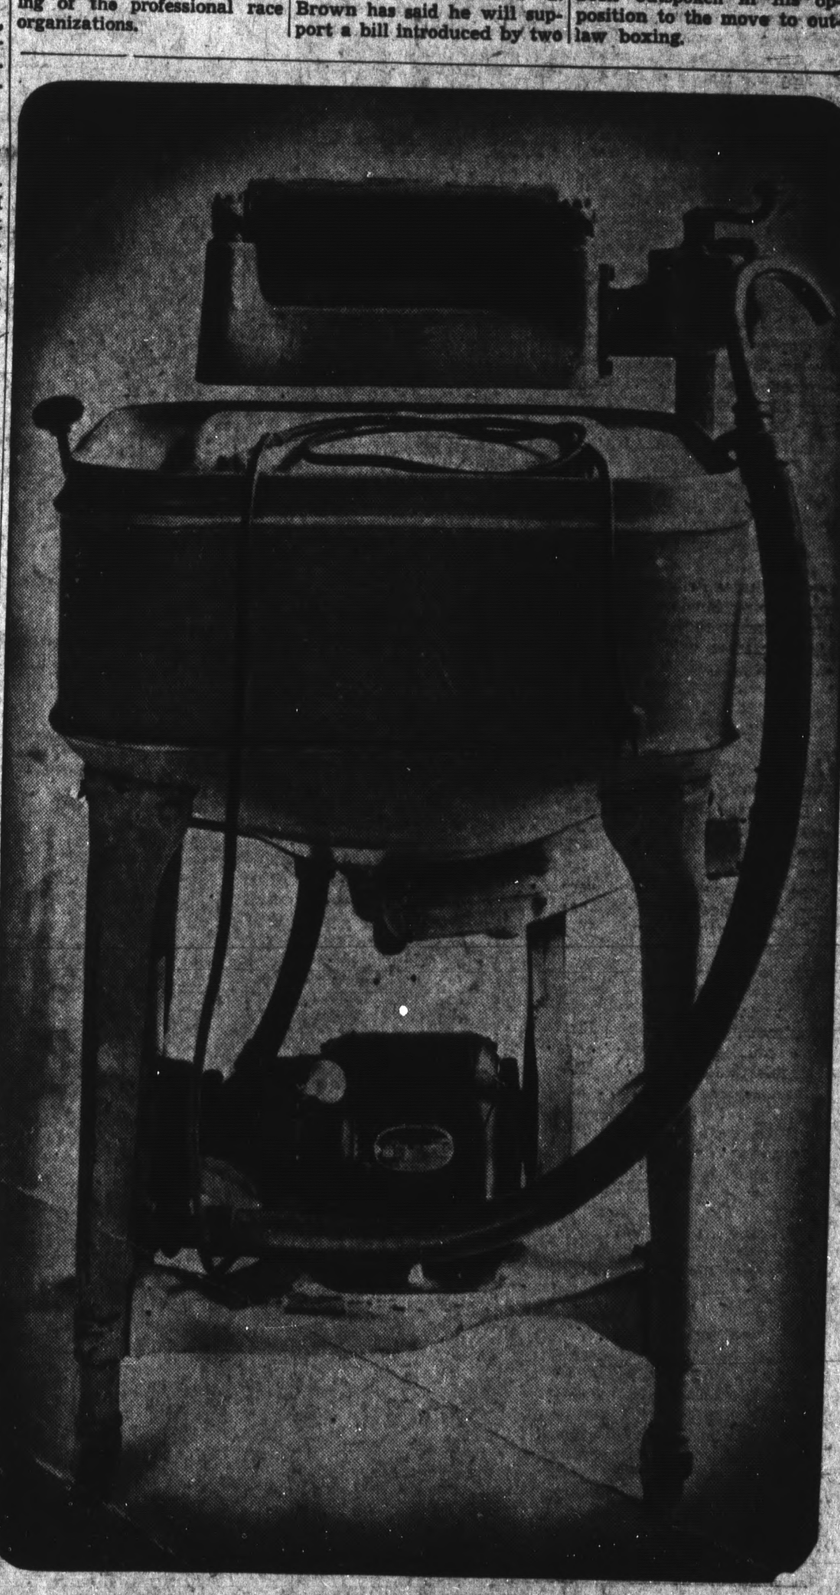

Assemblymen Alan G. Pattee, R-Salinas, and Carl A. Britschgi, R - Redwood City, have introduced a bill to put the matter before the people. They also authored a resolution which asks the state athletic commission to suspend the licenses of all boxing promoters in the state at once, which would abolish boxing on a temporary basis, until the people had the chance to vote.

Brown said he has favored outlawing boxing for some time but had not planned to push for such a bill this year because he felt it might interfere with his other legislative program.

The governor said he does not favor abolition of amateur boxing.

"I think the boxing in colleges with the heavy gloves, two-minute rounds, is a good sport and that it's good athletics," Brown said. "But professional prize fighting, getting to the top, the planning that must be done to move a person up to championship status the amount of interstate prize fighting they have to have and the people that have been in it just makes it impossible to regulate on any sound basis whatsoever."

Brown admitted that members of the state athletic commission, which he has praised, were not in agreement with his views. Dr. Dan O. Kilroy, veteran member of the commission from Sacramento, has been outspoken in his opposition to the move to outlaw boxing.

What did washers have in 1933 that they don't have today?

Answer: They had higher-priced power . . . because PG&E prices are 8% lower today* than 30 years ago. (So how come your bill is bigger now? Just because you're using more and better appliances these days.)

Something for Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

"Where Religion and Science Meet," by Rabbi Roland B. Gittelsohn, may be read in the March 23 issue of "Saturday Review." Its author argues that "religion and science are coordinated, complementary and simultaneous approach to man as a whole and life as a whole. They must not only co-exist; they must reinforce and refine each other."

He states that both religion and science seek to reveal the wonders of the universe so men may attain a better life than heretofore possible. He believes that investigation and faith are necessary for human progress. "Religion," he says, "must always go beyond science in postulation hypostheses about life, especially about the spiritual dimensions of life, hypostheses and convictions which science may never be able to prove or disprove."

For Rabbi Gittelsohn, religion and science are in collaboration when the leaders of both exercise the right to question and accept the postulates of the other. He warns: "Science must guard against the dogmatic assumption that only that which can be demonstrated in a laboratory can be true. Religion must refrain from arrogantly disputing with science its discoveries of fact. Both must understand that absolute knowledge as possessed by neither, that everything we think we know-whether it be religious doctrine or scientific date-has been filtered through finate and fallible human intelligence."

"Where Religion and Science Meet" was written to be part of a collection of articles that will soon be published in a book entitled "Religion Ponders Science." It will be a companion volume to a book entitled "Science Ponders Religion" that appeared in 1960.

Cub Pack 84 Recognition Nite

A "Recognition Night" was held by Cub Pack 84 to honor past Cubmasters, Committee Chairmen, and Pack Leaders at the March pack meeting. Cubmaster Jos. Monks presented engraved plaques to Warren Vocke who was honored for his many years service to the Pack, and to Mrs. LeRoy Larsen, who served as Den Mother, Counseling Den Mother and Crafts Instructor.

Certificates were awarded Roy Uyehata, for his service as Asst. Cubmaster and Webelos Leader, and to Mrs. Donald Perry for her term as Den Mother. Monks also led a round of applause for the many others who have served the Pack through the years and helped to make it a success.

Introduced as new Den Mothers were Mrs. Carl Nelson and Mrs. F. Bravos. Nine new Bobcats were inducted into the Pack, as follows: Robert Maigen, Dennis Kunz, Scott Gorsi, Ricky Rodriques, Jim Dahlstrom, Don McWilliam, Roland and Renny Wright, and Tom Alexander.

Graduation ceremonies were held for Paul Crim and Dennis Dumont, who are leaving Cubbing and moving into Boy Scouts. On hand to welcome them into Boy Scout Troop 84 were Scoutmaster Frank Garretson, and an honor escort of Boy Scouts. Monks congratulated these boys and presented each with a Boy Scout knife with the Pack's best wishes.

A special vote of thanks was extended to Chairman Jos. Horn and a hard working committee for the highly successful bottle drive, which netted the Pack treasury a fine profit.

A clever skit, "The Operation," was staged by the Webelos Den, under the leadership of Richard Gray, and the flag ceremony was handled by Den 9, with Mrs. Wm. Brewer as Den Mother. Monthly inspection award went to Den 10, led by Mrs. F. Bravos, who also provided refreshments.

D. Webster Kids Tour Police Station

Field trips took two classes to Kilpatricks Bakery and two classes to the Police department recently. The first graders—80 in all—taught by Mrs. Lynn Mequier and Mrs. Noreen Kellogg went on their lunch hour so they could see the dough being mixed at the bakery.

The children were interested particularly in the fermentation room and were amazed to see the dough being emptied out of the mixer into the trough which held 1000 loaves of bread. They were each given a hot roll as it came off the production line as well as a pencil, a replica of the company delivery trucks and a booklet on bread.

The children were impressed by how hot it was in the bakery and by how clean the floors and machines were.

Mothers accompanying the group were Mesdames Bisgarrd, Spadero and Tarantino.

Mrs. Eleanor Carle took her 25 first graders to the Daly City Police Department. Two days later Mrs. Gladys Gould took her 29 second graders there to see the modern equipment for intercommunication between the policeman on his beat and headquarters.

They learned that detectives cover areas beyond the policeman's beat. The youngsters found it hard to believe that human beings have to stay behind bars. They are glad to be part of an interdependent community where everyone helps to make good living their responsibility.

The Daniel Webster children, kindergarten through sixth grade gathered for their fifth all-school sing with the glee club and its director, Mrs. Pat Hackett contributing much to the quality of the group singing. Songs included this time were from the glee club repertoire yet some of them were favorites of the kindergartners.

Parent attendance pennant went to Den 2, under Mrs. Carl Nelson.

They were taken on a tour by Fred Gay. The children met the produce and meat managers. They were shown the different processes going on in running a supermarket. The children really enjoyed the trip and wrote stories about it. The class was accompanied by Mrs. Kay Smith, a student teacher, and Mrs. Edmison and Mrs. McLane, room mothers.

The children went to the art show March 27 to see the lovely exhibits on display. They were thrilled to see their classmate, Helmuth Bachmann's work.

It is that time again—the time when dedicated volunteers will be ringing doorbells, contacting organizations, collecting merchandise, in the Bay Area's largest community fund raising event of the year—KQED's annual auction.

This is the ninth year for the auction which this year will be held on five days beginning June 4.

Each year the funds collected have increased and last year's total was an impressive $107,000 toward their $500,000 yearly budget.

KQED is looking for contributions so if you have any new merchandise from your firm to contribute telephone SU 1-8861. A large community-wide corps of volunteers is now out canvassing all the Bay Area and assigned to the local area is Mrs. Charles M. Bray.

If you don't have anything to contribute do plan to watch the auction and bid on the items offered. You'll get some wonderful bargains and be helping a most worthy community activity besides. It is a way to express your "thanks" for the many fine television programs that are beamed into your home nightly by Channel 9.

Teacher Plays at Hillsdale Inn

One of the Peninsula's most versatile young entertainers is the new feature attraction at the Hillsdale Inn, Hillsdale Boulevard and Bayshore, San Mateo.

Michael Maffay, 2716 Arguello Dr., Burlingame, plays the piano in the fabled King Henry dining room from six to midnight during the week, and on weekends he is joined by his brother, Al, and Doug Delaney to provide a combo for "society style" dancing and dining.

Maffay, a 22 year old music teacher at the California Institute of Music in Daly City and a student at the Music and Arts Institute of San Francisco, plays the accordian as well as the piano, and often doubles as a vocalist. His brother handles the drums while Delaney alternates on the bass, clarinet, flute and saxaphone.

With bookings at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco, the Hyatt House in Burlingame and Mountain View's Caravan Inn to his credit, Maffay has already recorded two records of his own composition.

The young musician has also performed in a movie, "This Earth Is Mine," starring Rock Hudson.

'Warrior' Wins High Rating by Press Group

The WARRIOR, South San Francisco High School's newspaper has been awarded a first class rating by the National Scholastic Press Association for the first semester.

Of the forty-six schools in its national division, the Warrior was one of nineteen rated as first class. Ranking ranged from All-American (only one was selected for this category) to third class. Fourth and lower class papers were not honored with a rating.

Last year the Warrior was presented with a first class ranking during the first semester, but had only a second class rating for the second semester. Second class ratings are equivalent to the median of all high school newspapers in the country.

The Warrior received 3100 of a possible 3400 points on a critic sheet. It was commended highly for its coverage of school news and activities. A rating of excellent was given to the interview and speech portion of the staff functions. Other sections with "excellent" or "very good" included editorials and sports page make-up. Headline writing, front page make-up, and photography were some of the sections classified as 'good.'

Suggestions for improvement included basic style changes in lead sentences, greater depth in news articles, and more emphasis on details such as girls sports, dancing exercises, etc.

In a letter from Mr. Fred L. Kildow, director of NSPA he stated, "First Class Honor Ratings are comparable to excellent, and First Class publications should be justly proud of their achievement."

Foreign Student Addresses Club

Miss Helena Friseil of Stockholm, Sweden, spoke at the Daly City Rotary Club meeting at the Westlake Bowl last Wednesday. She is a senior student at Westmoor High School for the current school year as sponsored by the American Field Service. Helena's host home for the year is at the Bill Wagners with senior student Marilyn Wagner being her "sister."

Helena was introduced to Rotary members by Vincent Stratton, club president, and by Herbert Tweedie, chairman of the local A.F.S. committee. She spoke of the government, schools, climate, industries and sports of Sweden. She said that Stockholm is known as the "Venice of the North" because this capital city is built on many islands. She said that her family has a summer home on a small island on the Baltic Sea not far from Stockholm. She said that all the time in school is given to study with no clubs or sports on the schedule. She likes the idea of school clubs to foster special interests as is done here.

Mary Jane Putz also spoke at Rotary. She is the Westmoor student applicant in consideration with that national committee of A.F.S. headquartered at New York bor being sent abroad to another country for this summer.

The local Rotary Club presented Helena with a small club flag for her to take to the Rotary Club in Stockholm.

This special performance of the term play by the students is sponsored by the Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association, and will be presented Thursday evening, April 18, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Kickoff to the activities of "PTA Day" will be a cake sale. Slices of home baked cakes, donated by parents will be sold to the students during the lunch hours.

Students, parents and teachers are all working in this cooperative effort to make "PTA Day" a success.

Every dollar in proceeds from this performance of the term play will go to a special PTA fund to provide scholarships for June graduates of Lincoln. Amounts awarded are flexible and are based on individual need.

Distributive Education Classes will be handling the bulk of the ticket sales as part of their training.
